There are many devotees in Iran and other countries who heartily wish to go to Mashhad al-Reza to pay proper respect and show great devotion to this Imam's brilliant shrine. Some of them might be ill, so they make a vow to go on a pilgrimage to Imam al-Reza's (A.S.) Shrine if they regain their health.

There are others who travel to this city to talk to God next to the Shrine of Imam al-Reza (A.S) and ask God for their prayers to be answered and for them to be successful in their lives. Some other devotees might work harder throughout the year or even decide to spend less on delicious food and new clothes so that they may save up for the pilgrimage costs.

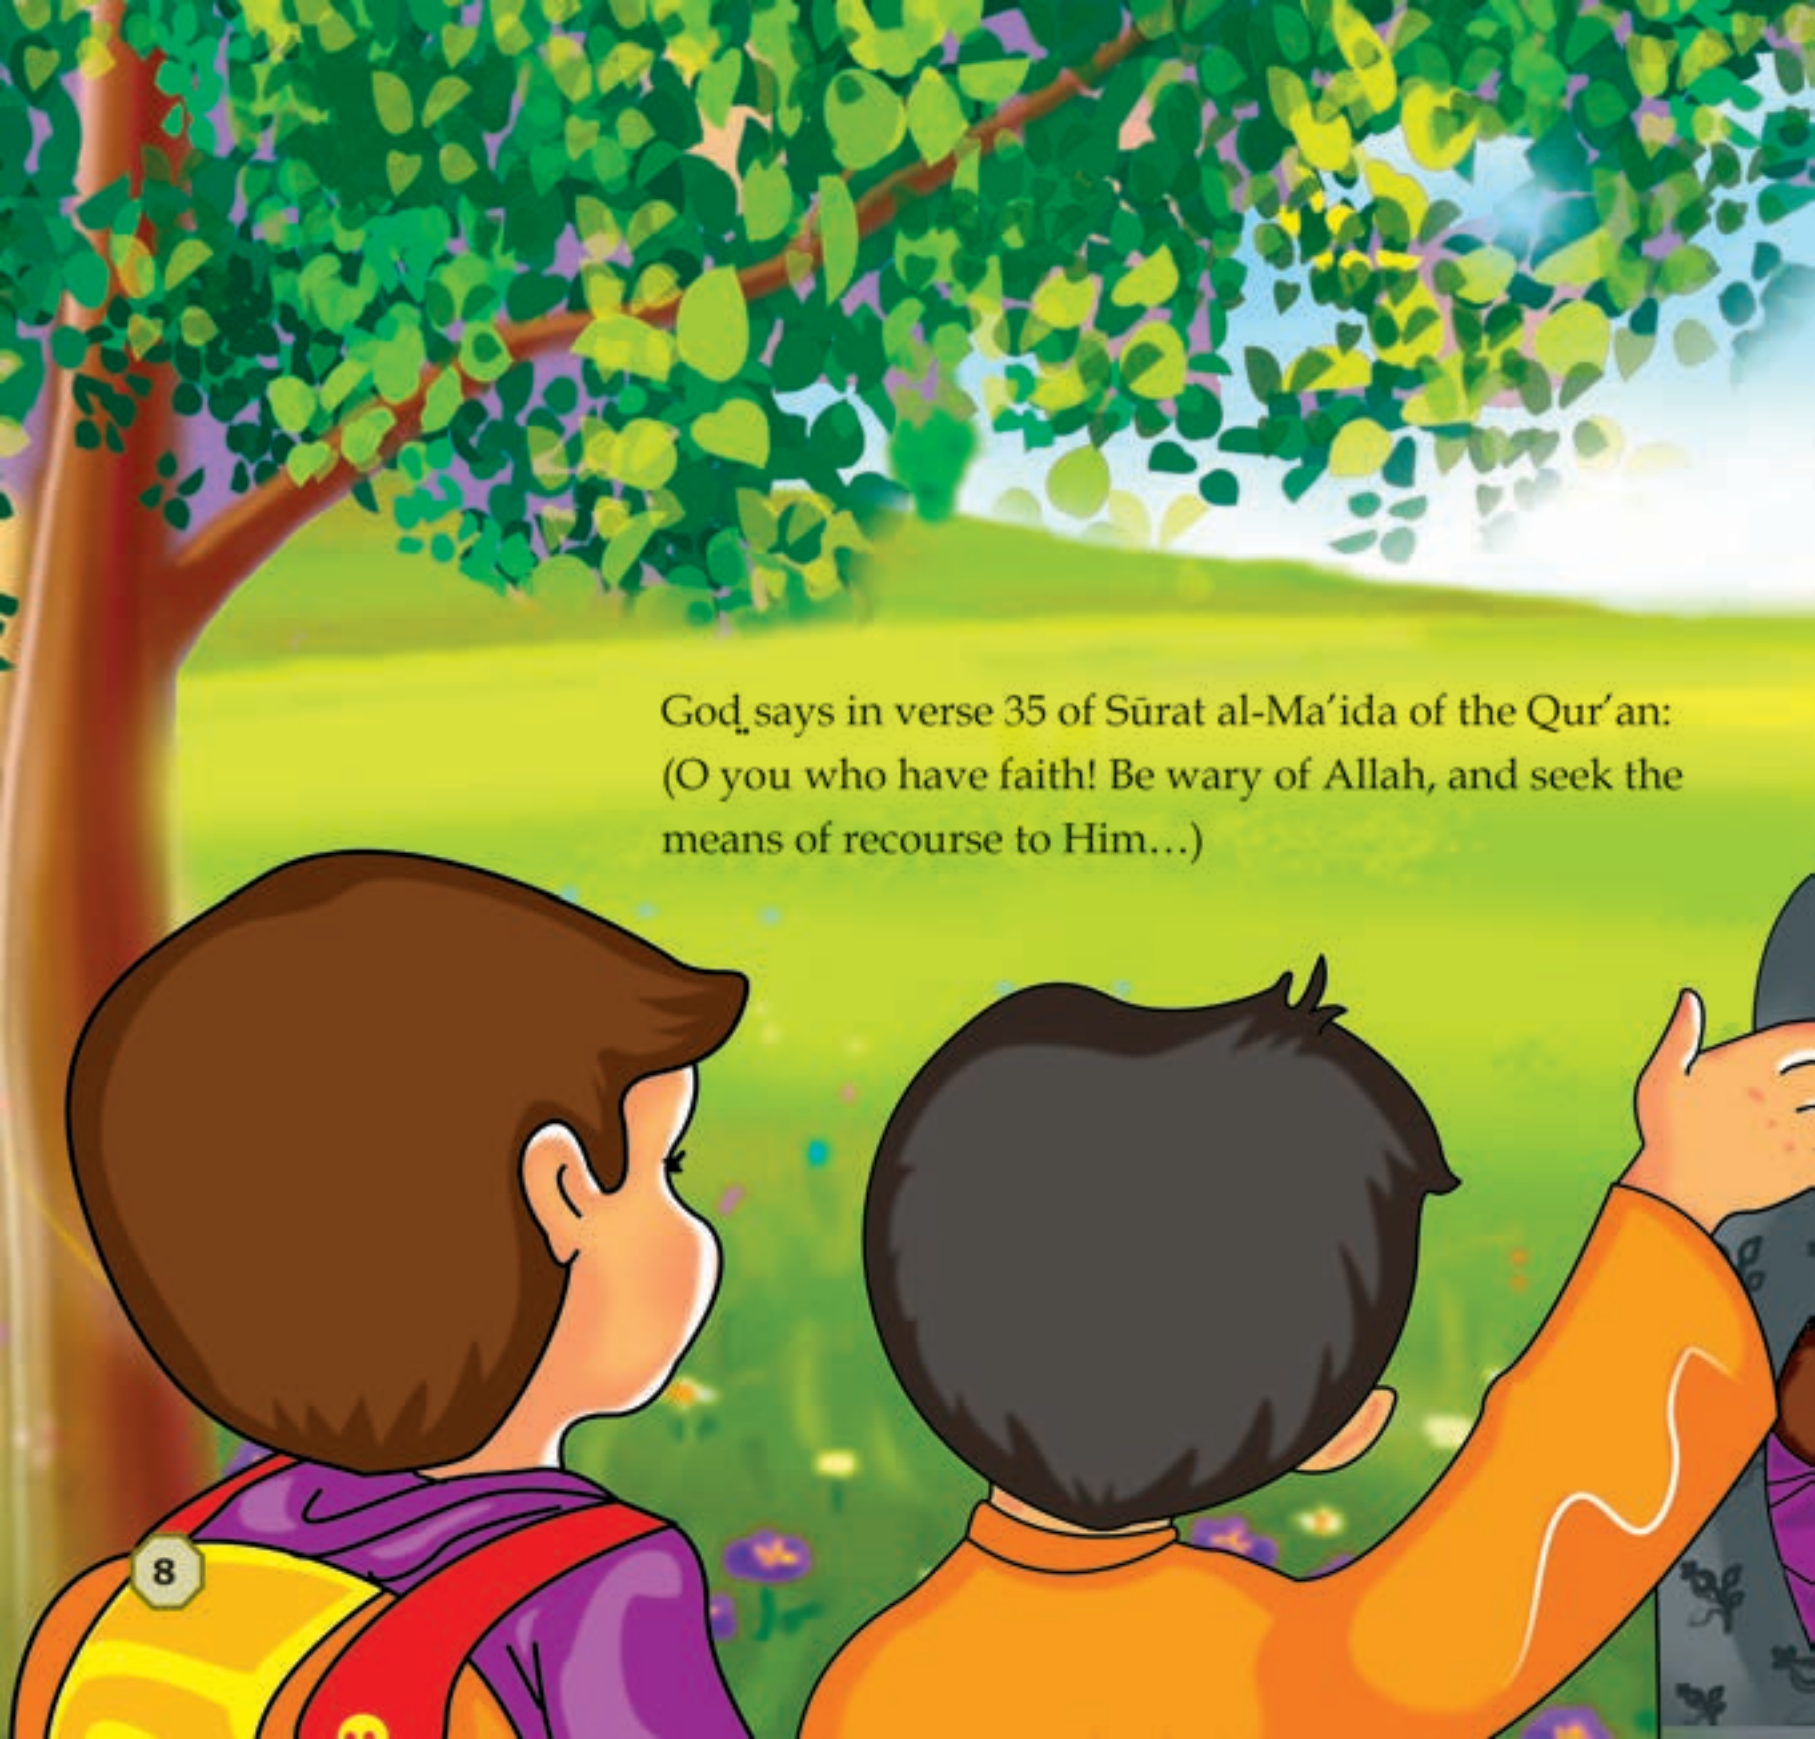

Children love Imam al-Reza (A.S.) very much, too. Together with their parents, children pray to God, with their kind, tender hearts so that they may succeed in going on this pilgrimage.

God says in verse 35 of Sūrat al-Ma'ida of the Qur'an:
(O you who have faith! Be wary of Allah, and seek the means of recourse to Him...)

The Infallible Imams (Peace be upon them) are purified and impeccable people who sacrificed themselves to ensure the survival of the true Islam and to leave it to us. Hence, we call upon them for intercession, with God's permission, to help us more throughout our lives.

Always, and especially when we are at Imam al-Reza's
(A.S.) Holy Shrine, we pray like this:

"Oh Allah, protect my parents."

"Oh Allah, forgive my parents."

"Oh Allah, heal the sick ones."
